

U.S. ARMY SUSTAINMENT COMMAND

Colonel Charles “Doyle” Lassitter Commander, Distribution Management Center

Colonel Charles “Doyle” Lassitter assumed the duties of the commander of the Distribution Management Center in June of 2015. Colonel Lassitter was born in Pensacola, Florida on April 28, 1965. A Distinguished Military Graduate from the University of Florida, he was commissioned as an Ordnance Officer and entered active duty in February 1989. During his first assignment with the 144th Ordnance Company in Germany, Lassitter served as the Maintenance Platoon Leader and deployed in support of Operation Desert Shield/Storm. Soon after the deployment, he was assigned as the Shop Officer with the 48th Maintenance Company. In 1992, he was assigned to Fort Campbell, Kentucky where he served as the S4 in the 129th Corps Support Battalion and Commanded Bravo Company, 626th Forward Support Battalion. In 1997 COL Lassitter was assigned as the Executive Officer for the Chief of Ordnance and later served in the Commanding General’s Command Plans Group at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland.

From 2000-2001 COL Lassitter served as the Support Operations Officer in the 34th Area Support Group, Korea. In August 2001 he was assigned as the Plans Officer with the 101st Corps Support Group, Fort Campbell and in May 2002 he deployed to Bagram, Afghanistan to assume duties as the Support Operations Officer in the 129th Corps Support Battalion. He became the Executive Officer in May 2003 and deployed a second time to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. From June 2004 through May 2006 he served as the Ordnance Majors Assignment Officer at Human Resources Command in Alexandria, VA.

On June 16, 2006 COL Lassitter assumed command of the 129th Combat Sustainment Support Battalion. He deployed with his battalion on October 22, 2007 to Al Taqaddum, Iraq where the unit provided logistics support to Army and Marine units operating throughout Al Anbar Province. The battalion redeployed to Fort Campbell on December 23, 2008 and on March 5, 2009 he relinquished his command. He was reassigned to U.S. Central Command as the J4 Afghanistan Planner in May 2009 and became the Chief, Logistics Plans Division in August 2010. He commanded Red River Army Depot from June 2011 through June 2014. COL Lassitter is currently a student at the Air War College.

COL Lassitter holds a Bachelor of Science in Materials Engineering from the University of Florida and a Master of Science in Logistics Management from the Naval Postgraduate School. His military education includes the Ordnance Officer Basic Course, the Combined Logistics Officer Advance Course, Airborne School, Air Assault School, Support Operations Course and the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College. He is currently a student at the Air War College.

COL Lassitter’s awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star with two oak leaf clusters, Joint Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with five oak leaf clusters, Army Commendation Medal with two oak leaf clusters, Army Achievement Medal with oak leaf cluster, Meritorious Unit Medal with two oak leaf cluster, Army Superior Unit Medal, Combat Action Badge, Airborne Badge and Air Assault Badge.

COL Lassitter is married and they have three children.

June. 2015

