

U.S. ARMY SUSTAINMENT COMMAND

Command Sergeant Major Joe M. Ulloth Command Sergeant Major, Army Sustainment Command

Command Sergeant Major Joe M. Ulloth assumed responsibility of the U.S. Army Sustainment Command on 02 May 2017.

CSM Ulloth most recent assignment was as Command Sergeant Major of the 19th Expeditionary Sustainment Command (ESC) in Korea. His previous assignments include the U.S. Army Environmental Command in Texas; the 593rd Special Troops Battalion, 593rd ESC, and I Corps in Washington; 71st Ordnance Group Ordnance Disposal (EOD) in Colorado; 94th Brigade Support Battalion and Joint Readiness Training Center in Louisiana; 407th Forward Support Battalion in North Carolina; 8th Army in Korea; 7th Transportation Battalion in North Carolina; 5th Maintenance Company in Germany.

CSM Ulloth participated in five military operations, including Humanitarian Relief Assistance during Hurricane Fran and four combat tours all in U.S. Central Command; two tours in Iraq and two tours in Afghanistan.

His military schooling includes all levels of the Noncommissioned Officer Professional Development System to include the Executive Leaders Course; Continuing Education for Senior Leaders; Pre-Command Courses and CSM Development Program; Joint Logistics Course; Force Management Course; and many other military schools.

He is a graduate of Pemberton Township High School in New Jersey. He holds a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Troy University and a master's degree in Leadership and Management from Webster University.

His awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star Medal, the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, and the Meritorious Service Medal. He is awarded the Combat Action Badge, the Senior Parachutist Badge, the Air Assault Badge, and the Pathfinder Badge. He is an inductee of the Sergeant Audie Murphy Club and the recipient of the Ordnance Order of Samuel Sharpe.

May 2017