

Frequently Asked Questions

Personally Procured Moves (PPM)

I am considering moving my own property to my next duty station. How do I make arrangements for this and can you tell me how much money I will make?

To arrange a (PPM) move you will need to come to the Transportation office with a copy of your orders. After your counseling you will be given a packet with the necessary documents to settle your move, which will provide you with an estimated dollar amount.

How long does it take to receive my PPM settlement after I complete my move?

You should receive payment no later than 30 days after you complete and submit the documents to this office.

Do I get paid mileage on a PPM move?

No, the mileage is paid through finance as a part of your Travel Pay.

Is my food and lodging covered by my PPM move?

No, this is paid through finance as a part of your Travel Pay.

Where can I get my weight tickets for my PPM move?

You can get your weight tickets from any state certified weighing station. Weigh stations are at most Truck Stops.

Can I do a PPM move and have the Government move some of my property?

Yes, you can do a partial PPM and a government move in conjunction with each other not to exceed the weight allowance based on your rank and dependent status.
