

U.S. ARMY SUSTAINMENT COMMAND

Mrs. Jody M. Fasko Deputy to the Commander, 405th Army Field Support Brigade

Jody M. Fasko assumed duties as the Deputy to the Commander of the 405th Army Field Support Brigade in July 2018. Mrs. Fasko entered civilian service as an intern for the U.S. Army Field Support Command, the Army Sustainment Command's predecessor, in Rock Island, Illinois in 2004.

Mrs. Fasko's previous assignments included Director Contract Management Office, ASC; Chief Enhanced Army Global Logistics Enterprise (EAGLE) Business Office, ASC and various positions as a Logistics Management Specialist within the ASC's Army Prepositioned Stocks Directorate.

Mrs. Fasko holds a Bachelor of Business degree from Western Illinois University and a Masters in Business Administration degree from St. Ambrose University in Davenport, IA. She is a graduate of the Department of Army's Civilian Education System Advanced Course, Army Management Staff College and Army Sustainment Command's Journey to Leadership Tier II program. Mrs. Fasko is Level III certified in Life Cycle Logistics and a member of the DoD Acquisition Core.

Mrs. Fasko's awards include the Superior Civilian Service Award, Commander's Award for Civilian Service and ASC's Highly Productive Achievement Award.

July 2018

